PART 2: INSTRUCTOR COMMENTS & RECOMMENDATIONS

Please specify student's specific strength(s) and area(s) s/he needs to improve.

Strengths:
Speaking	Your progress in spoken Chinese is remarkable. When expressing your viewpoints, you skillfully incorporate complex sentence structures, utilizing a variety of conjunctions and complements. Your mastery of tones is also commendable. Keep up the excellent work in refining your oral communication skills!
Reading	Impressive strides in your reading skills! Your ability to grasp the main idea and answer questions accurately, even in the presence of unfamiliar vocabulary, demonstrates a commendable level of comprehension. Keep up the excellent work!
Listening	Your progress in understanding complex sentence structures is evident. It's impressive that you can now comprehend a variety of intricate sentences and extract essential information after just one listen.
Other Skills	N/A

Needs Improvement:
Speaking	Your advice on exam narrative skills is spot on – preplanning the format and logical flow is crucial. Structuring your narration with a clear sequence, using a variety of conjunctions, enhances the completeness of your storytelling.
Reading	Enhancing your reading skills by exploring online articles or related materials after class is a great way to practice. This will not only reinforce what we've covered but also contribute to the development of your overall reading proficiency.
Listening	A valuable suggestion! Take some time to practice listening to and comprehending numbers. This will significantly improve your numerical listening skills, which is essential in various contexts. Incorporate this into your regular practice routine for well-rounded language development.
