DEFENSE LANGUAGE INSTITUTE – WASHINGTON OFFICE
STUDENT SELF-ASSESSMENT

Student Name: Adrienne

Date: 05/31/2024

PART 1: Please assess your student's language proficiency skill.

If student has not studied a task yet, mark N/A.

ILR Levels	DESCRIPTION	CAN DO MOST OF THE TIME	CAN DO SOME OF THE TIME	CAN-NOT DO	N/A
SPEAKING: I can . . .
0+	produce some memorized formulaic words and phrases	X
0+	ask questions using memorized formulaic phrases	X
0+	greet and introduce myself	X
0+	provide minimal biographical information	X
1	maintain simple exchanges about work experience	X
1	maintain simple exchanges about hobbies and interests	X
1	maintain simple exchanges about travel	X
1	maintain simple exchanges about educational experience	X
1	make simple recommendations	X
1	ask simple questions	X
1	cope with basic survival situation (role-play w/o complications)	X
2	narrate in the present	X
2	narrate in the past	X
2	narrate in the future	X
2	give physical description		X
2	give instructions	X
2	give geographical directions	X
2	report facts about current events		X
2	cope with a survival situation with a complication	X
3	discuss a hypothetical situation		X
3	present on a topic		X
3	discuss and compare societal issues and their implications		X
3	state and defend a position or policy			X
LISTENING: I can . . .

ILR Levels	DESCRIPTION	CAN DO MOST OF THE TIME	CAN DO SOME OF THE TIME	CAN-NOT DO	N/A
0+	recognize common greetings and introductions	X
0+	understand minimal exchanges, such as formulaic questions and utterances	X
1	understand simple statements and questions	X
1	understand general subject matter in simple material dealing with self, family, and immediate environment	X
2	understand main idea and details in straightforward instructions	X
2	understand main idea and details in straightforward narration across timeframes	X
2	understand main idea and details in straightforward descriptions	X
3	comprehend supported opinion		X
3	comprehend hypothesis or conjecture		X
3	draw inferences		X
3	understand commonly used rhetorical devices such as simile and metaphor			X
READING: I can . . .
0+	recognize the basic elements of the writing system	X
0+	understand numbers	X
0+	understand some isolated words and phrases (signage, personal and place names, formulaic expressions)	X
1	understand simple statements and questions	X
1	understand general subject matter in simple material	X
2	understand main idea and details in instructions written for general audience	X
2	understand main idea and details in narrations across timeframes written for general audience	X
2	understand main idea and details in descriptions written for general audience	X
3	comprehend supported opinion		X
3	comprehend hypothesis or conjecture		X
3	comprehend conjecture		X

PART 2: Please answer the following self-reflection questions:

1. What would you consider the most challenging in learning your language in this month?
   Listening to news and current events is difficult sometimes, listening is hardest for me.

2. What actions have you taken that were most helpful in meeting your goals/challenges this month?
   Doing listening exercise on my own and following along with the script.

3. What would you like to focus on next month?
   Speaking and listening.