DEFENSE LANGUAGE INSTITUTE – WASHINGTON OFFICE

STUDENT SELF-ASSESSMENT

Student Name: Adrienne

Date: 02/29/2024

PART 1: Please assess your student's language proficiency skill.

If student has not studied a task yet, mark N/A.

ILR Levels	DESCRIPTION	CAN DO MOST OF THE TIME	CAN DO SOME OF THE TIME	CAN-NOT DO	N/A
SPEAKING: I can…
0+	produce some memorized formulaic words and phrases	X
0+	ask questions using memorized formulaic phrases	X
0+	greet and introduce myself	X
0+	provide minimal biographical information	X
1	maintain simple exchanges about work experience		X
1	maintain simple exchanges about hobbies and interests		X
1	maintain simple exchanges about travel		X
1	maintain simple exchanges about educational experience		X
1	make simple recommendations		X
1	ask simple questions		X
1	cope with basic survival situation (role-play w/o complications)		X
2	narrate in the present	X
2	narrate in the past		X
2	narrate in the future		X
2	give physical description	X
2	give instructions		X
2	give geographical directions		X
2	report facts about current events				X
2	cope with a survival situation with a complication				X
3	discuss a hypothetical situation				X
3	present on a topic				X
3	discuss and compare societal issues and their implications				X
3	state and defend a position or policy				X
LISTENING: I can…
0+	recognize common greetings and introductions	X

ILR Levels	DESCRIPTION	CAN DO MOST OF THE TIME	CAN DO SOME OF THE TIME	CAN-NOT DO	N/A
0+	understand minimal exchanges, such as formulaic questions and utterances	X
1	understand simple statements and questions	X
1	understand general subject matter in simple material dealing with self, family, and immediate environment	X
2	understand main idea and details in straightforward instructions		X
2	understand main idea and details in straightforward narration across timeframes		X
2	understand main idea and details in straightforward descriptions		X
3	comprehend supported opinion				X
3	comprehend hypothesis or conjecture				X
3	draw inferences				X
3	understand commonly used rhetorical devices such as simile and metaphor				X
READING: I can …
0+	recognize the basic elements of the writing system	X
0+	understand numbers	X
0+	understand some isolated words and phrases (signage, personal and place names, formulaic expressions)	X
1	understand simple statements and questions	X
1	understand general subject matter in simple material	X
2	understand main idea and details in instructions written for general audience		X
2	understand main idea and details in narrations across timeframes written for general audience		X
2	understand main idea and details in descriptions written for general audience		X
3	comprehend supported opinion				X
3	comprehend hypothesis or conjecture				X
3	comprehend conjecture				X

PART 2: Please answer the following self-reflection questions:

1. What would you consider the most challenging in lear your language in this month?
   Writing sentences that are gramatically correct and are natural. Whenever I take a test I struggle to provide a good translation of the english to Chinese, it's always a little awkward.

2. What actions have you taken that were most helpful in meeting your goals/challenges this month?
   I have written a lot of writing assignments and go over them with Laoshi. It has greatly increased my fluency and accuracy.

3. What would you like to focus on next month?
   More speaking! I think it's the best way for me to learn.